

JEFFREY R. JAMES
319 WESTLAKE DRIVE
COPPELL, TEXAS 75019

EDUCATION

Mathematics, Bachelor of Arts, Rutgers University
Graduate studies in Master of Science in Environment Engineering, Illinois Institute of Technology
31 courses in safety, fire prevention, and oil spill response

CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Director of Safety (CDS) #1002 - State of Michigan - 1984
Certified Safety Professional (CSP) #7513 - State of Illinois - 1985
Certified Safety and Health Manager (CSHM) - State of North Carolina - 1999

MEMBERSHIPS

Professional Member of American Society of Safety Engineers- 1983
Member of National Fire Protection Association - 1983
Member of National Safety Management Society - 1990
Member of American Industrial Hygiene Association - 1998

EXPERIENCE

Oct 2007 to Feb 2009 Safety Manager for ExxonMobil on 350 million ESP Project at the ExxonMobil Torrance Refinery. OSHA injury rate 0.28
Sept 2007 Safety Incident Manager for T/A at ExxonMobil Chalmette Refinery.
March 2007 to May 2007 Safety Manager on Coker Improvement Project at the ExxonMobil Chalmette Refinery
April 2006 to October 2006, Safety Manager for ExxonMobil on 40 million dollar project in Chalmette, La. OSHA injury rate 0.00
April 2002 to July 2005, Safety Manager for ENGlobal on 880 million dollar project in the ExxonMobil Refinery. OSHA rate 0.00
September 2001 to November 2001, Safety Officer for an Oil spill in the Houston Ship Container channel for Hudson Marine.
Corporate International EHS Advisor-Dallas for ExxonMobil from 1996 until June 2000.
Corporate Oil Spill and Crisis Management Advisor - Princeton, N. J. 1990-1996
Safety Manager Joliet Refinery 1987-1990
Safety Supervisor Beaumont Refinery
Safety Manager of U.S. Marketing for the Eastern half of the USA
Various Positions in U.S. Marketing in light products terminal management.

MILITARY

USAF- Aug 1967 - 1971- Captain

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Lead first major USA refinery into the OSHA Star Project-Joliet Illinois
Developed Mobil Oil's World Wide Oil Spill Response Capability Assessment Program
Responded to 9 major events, eight in the US and one in Brazil